

Moody Distance Learning

Master of Arts in Applied Biblical Studies

This entirely online, 36-credit-hour master's degree makes it possible for you not only to achieve your academic goals in less than two years but also to fulfill your work, ministry, and family commitments.

As you study Scripture, you will grow spiritually, apply principles from God's Word to your life, and effectively minister to those around you. You will experience a unique blend of case study, biblical teaching, spiritual formation, and reflection.

Applications for this online master's program will be available mid-summer. Cohort groups are scheduled to begin in October 2012, January 2013, March 2013, and August 2013.

Degree Distinctives

- Enjoy the flexibility of taking all courses online and experience a manageable level of coursework while maintaining work, family, and ministry commitments.
- Finish your degree in less than two years with 36 credit hours offered in consecutive seven-week sessions.
- Receive guidance and mentoring from a cross-disciplinary faculty team that will be available to you throughout the program.
- Learn from expert Moody faculty and guest speakers.
- Experience week-long reflective sessions periodically during the program.
- Build godly character and live life relating biblically in your sphere of influence.
- Grow in your relationship with Christ, live your calling, and increase your ministry expertise.

Future Ministry Possibilities

Associate pastor, mission or outreach pastor, small group leader, Christian curriculum developer, deacon, and many more.